Dear Members,

I hope this issue of Illuminations finds you healthy and in good spirits. The world has changed significantly since the last issue of our quarterly journal went to press. We have witnessed COVID-19 grow from a viral outbreak to a global pandemic that has swept across the nation and left feelings of fear, uncertainty, and heartbreak in its wake. People have grown accustomed to spending long periods in self-isolation, washing their hands in an almost compulsive manner, social distancing themselves from others, and wearing facemasks when they go out in public. Non-essential businesses were closed, parents and students became intimately familiar with online virtual schools, and nearly all of us felt the financial impact of recent events in one way or another. Some of you may have contracted COVID-19 yourselves or know someone who has. To those who have been directly impacted by the virus, I wish you all a full and speedy recovery. Despite the many obstacles we have faced over these past three months, I hope your faith in a better tomorrow will continue to shine like the tower's historic beacon.

The Ponce de Leon Inlet Lighthouse and Museum was closed from March 18th through May 3rd to protect staff and adhere to Florida Governor Ron DeSantis' 30-day Safer At Home order. When presented with the decision to keep its employees or lay them off, the Association chose to keep them on the active payroll through May 2nd in an effort to retain trained, qualified personnel and protect them from financial hardship. Many of the Association's administrative, curatorial, programs, gift shop, and maintenance department staff continued to work; either remotely from home or at the lighthouse. Those who came in were required to sequester themselves in their offices during the day or work in separate locations to ensure strict COVID-19 protective measures were followed.

The amount of work accomplished by lighthouse staff during this 47-day period far exceeded what could have normally been completed if the museum were open. Although the closure significantly impacted the museum financially, the decision to keep the Association's employees on the active payroll was money well spent. Maintenance department activities completed during this time included the restoration of the covered porches on all three keeper dwellings, repainting of the tower's interior and exterior ironwork, refinishing of historic wood floors in two of the keeper's dwellings and historic Pacetti Hotel, grounds maintenance, gift shop rehabilitation, and more. Administrative tasks included the submission of a federal application to add the Pacetti Hotel to the National Register of Historic Places and the development of content for a new online virtual tour and distance learning program.

The Ponce De Leon Inlet Lighthouse reopened to the public on May 4, 2020 in compliance with Phase One of the Safe, Smart, Step-by-Step Plan for Florida's Recovery Order issued by Governor DeSantis on April 29, 2020. In accordance with this directive, museums and libraries may open at no more than 25 percent of their normal capacity. The operational status of the lighthouse and museum will remain subject to ongoing developments regarding the COVID-19 pandemic and future state mandates.

Although the lighthouse is currently open to the public visitation is expected to fall well-short of annual projections for many months to come. With more than 90% of the museum's operating revenue generated directly through onsite admission and merchandise sales, the financial impact of COVID-19 on lighthouse operations will be significant.

Alternative financial support has been pursued on many fronts since the museum's initial closing, including much needed funding through the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act. The Association was approved for a Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loan through the CARES Act on April 27th. The PPP loan will help cover the cost of employee payroll and other organizational expenses.

I am pleased to announce that the Ponce De Leon Inlet Lighthouse Preservation Association is in the process of finalizing an agreement with a local foundation in support of the historic Pacetti Hotel. A partnership eight months in the making, this exciting opportunity will help finance the restoration, preservation, rehabilitation, development, and naming of the historic Pacetti Hotel Museum. I look forward to discussing this agreement in greater detail in the future. The negative impact of COVID-19 on Florida tourism as whole and lighthouse visitation in particular is expected to be felt through the rest of 2020. As such, the Preservation Association anticipates a significant reduction in revenue for the remainder of this fiscal year. As an Association member, you are one of the light station's most valuable assets. Your continued support will help us achieve our mission to preserve and disseminate the maritime and social history of the Ponce de Leon Inlet Light

Station at this difficult time. There are many ways to give including:

1. Make a donation to the Ponce Inlet Lighthouse
2. Purchase merchandise in the gift shop or online
3. Buy a memorial brick for family, friends, and loved ones
4. Upgrade your annual membership when you renew and purchase a membership for a friend

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, Advisory Committee, staff and volunteers, I would like to express the Association's sincere appreciation for your continued patronage. We look forward to seeing you at the Ponce de Leon Inlet Lighthouse and Museum in the near future. Stay safe and healthy.

With Warm Regards,

Ed Gunnlaugsson
